Obituary.

Mrs. Celia Graham was born in Pickaway county, Ohio, Oct. 17, 1813, and died in Pella, Iowa, April 9, 1900, aged 86 years, 3 months and 22 days. Early in life she experienced religion and united with the M. E. church of which communion she remained a faithful member through all the years of her pilgrimage, for more than three score and ten years she walked in the faith and comfort of the Gospel, having respect unto the recompense of the reward.

March 7 1883 she was united in marriage with Josiah Adams. For 65 years they sharing each others joys and sorrows. Mr. Adams died two years ago. They were among the pioneers of Marion county, having settled at Knoxville in 1832. At that time there was no railroad west of the Mississippi river, and only a small part of the young state was occupied by settlers. The last few years of her life were years of deep affliction. Intellectual clouds and darkness were about her, but to her doubtless was verified the Promise.

"When thou passeth through the waters I will be with thee, and through rivers they shall not overflow thee, when thou walketh through the fire, thou shalt not be burned, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee, fear not for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine." Her funeral was conducted by Rev. J. C. Kendrick of the M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Pook of the Baptist church, at the family home. Her remains were conveyed to the family burying grounds near Durham.

CARD.

Hattie and Maggie Adams desire to express their gratitude to the kind friends who so nobly assisted them during the recent affliction and death of their mother. Words seem formal, but the bereaved hearts appreciate and extend to all a grateful remembrance.

Mr Dirk VanderWilt.

Died, Monday morning, April 9, 1900, our beloved husband and father, Dirk VanderWilt, aged 79 years, 1 month and 18 days.

For more than two years deceased suffered greatly with bodily weakness, yet never did we hear one word of complaint from his lips and with true christian fortitude did he endure his trials. Nearly 36 years of my life were spent with him in happy matrimony. During that time he proved himself to be for me a devoted husband and for his children a kind and loving father. Although bowed down with grief and sorrow we desire to put our trust in Him, who doeth all things well and who alone can extend to us consolation in this our time of distress.

CARD.

We herewith desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kind assistance and sympathy extended to us during the sickness and death of our husband and father.

Miss Van Domselaer has opened dress making rooms at Miss Fiek's millinery parlors, and will do all kinds of cutting and fitting for ladies and also make childrens garments,

A World without Music

Would be a dreary place. Music is an inspiration—a tonic. You expect to buy a piano some time—why not now? A piano is furniture, it is entertainment, it is investment. Nothing can give greater pleasure in the home than a piano—all can share in the pleasure, and so can your friends.

I have opened up in Pella the finest stock of pianos ever seen here. Call and examine these fine instruments, whether you want to buy or not. You may want one sometime and you may learn something here which will be of assistance to you when you do buy.

In my piano business there is a purpose beyond that of merely exchanging my pianos for your money. There is an underlying principle pervading my business, an object, a purpose always kept in view, and this object is to give you the best make and the best piano of that make for the money you wish to invest.

It has been said that if a man puts no part of his brain and soul in his daily work, if he feels no pride in the part he is playing in life, the sooner he quits the world the better. This is a truth, and it is the secret of my success as a piano man. My life-long experience as a musician, and my thorough knowledge of the construction and qualities of pianos as a tuner have qualified me in an exceptional degree to select from the many pianos on the market, the best to be had.

It is always safe to have a mechanic do your work who puts his soul into it, it is always to your interest to buy goods of a man who has pride in his reputation. I am well known in Pella—ask your banker about me. It is an established fact that you can not buy pianos elsewhere, quality for quality, for less money, than you can from me.

My stock includes the celebrated WEBER, WHEELLOCK, STUYVE-SANT and other makes. Several bargains at $167 and $180. Old instruments taken in exchange, and pianos sold on monthly payments when desired.

The Children Need a Piano.

Even if the parents think they do not need one for themselves, they should consider the children. To them it means whether there is music in the house or not, it means a source of recreation and refinement, that nothing else can replace, it means a part of their education. Do not say you cannot afford one, for you can. There are very few families in Iowa that cannot afford a piano.

Sale is now open. 3rd door west the American House. Call and see me and look over the finest lot of pianos ever shown in Pella.

From an Old Pella Boy.

DEAR EDITOR ADVERTISER:

Your paper so kindly sent me by my old friend S. H. Vierson often takes my thoughts back to Pella, though we left there about thirty three years ago and have not been back since. I think I hardly deserve this kindness, but I am glad I was raised among the Hollanders and learned their sturdy and industrious habits, and as I was born in Holland there is an old saying that "blood is thicker than water," and I think we can use that phrase in regard to the war the Hollanders are waging against the English in South Africa. How many Americans we meet that are of dutch descent and how the sympathies go out to the so called Boer.

I remember well at a Fourth of July celebration about fifty years ago how the Rev. Scholte in his remarks told us how Holland had always sympathized with our country especially during the Revolution, and how they in Holland even sang songs in honor of our first naval hero Paul Jones. And thinking of those by gone days I cannot forget good Father Bousquet, when the first Sunday school was organized in a little house in the Garden square, and of how earnestly he talked to us thoughtless boys, and among the Baptists were so many whose memory is always dear to us. Keep on sending us the ADVERTISER, and enclose find the wherewith to send it. With best wishes to all friends of Pella.

I remain truly yours
S. VANDERKRAK,

Is Baby Too Thin?

If so, there must be some trouble with its food. Well babies are plump; only the sick are thin. Are you sure the food is all right? Children can't help but grow; they must grow if their food nourishes them. Perhaps a mistake was made in the past and as a result the digestion is weakened. If that is so, don't give the baby a lot of medicine; just use your every-day common sense and help nature a little, and the way to do it is to add half a teaspoonful of to the baby's food three or four times a day. The gain will begin the very first day you give it. It seems to correct the digestion and gets the baby started right again. If the baby is nursing but does not thrive, then the mother should take the emulsion. It will have a good effect both upon the mother and child. Twenty-five years proves this fact.
