JOHN C. SALYER

Defendant.

No. D. 213,787

FINAL JUDGMENT
OF DIVORCE

In this cause an interlocutory judgment was entered on the 16th day of December, 1941, adjudging that plaintiff was entitled to a divorce from defendant, and more than one year having elapsed, and no appeal having been taken from said judgment, and no motion for a new trial having been granted and the action not having been dismissed;

Now, upon the Court's own motion, it is adjudged that plaintiff be and is granted a final judgment of divorce from defendant and that the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, dissolved.

It is further order^d and adjudged that wherein said interlocutory judgment makes any provision for alimony or the custody and support of children, said provision be and the same is hereby made binding on the parties affected thereby the same as if herein set forth in full, and that wherein said interlocutory judgment relates to the property of the parties hereto, said property be and the same is hereby assigned in accordance with the terms thereof to the parties therein declared to be entitled thereto.

Done in open Court this 21st day of December, 1942.
